QUERETARO, Qro. December 16, 2016 – BRP's Querétaro manufacturing site received on November 29 the state's Business Merit Award in the export category, due to its distinguished quality of goods and standardized processes in the assembly and export of its products.

The award acknowledges organizations, companies and institutions in matter of Competitiveness, Exportation and Social Responsibility, and who have also distinguished themselves in the implementation of strategies, systems and processes of total quality and continuous improvement.

This award was created to recognize entrepreneurs who generate state growth, according to the Secretary of Sustainable Development, Marco Antonio Del Prete Tercero, who led the delivery of the same on behalf of the state governor, Francisco Domínguez Servién.

In this way BRP's Querétaro facility is positioned at the forefront in work centers and exporters of premium products worldwide.
